Art Unit: 3754

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garcia et al. 2003/0109068. The embodiment of figure 4 of Garcia discloses a fluid dispenser member 1 with a body 10, a fastening means 17, a gasket 18 and an ID unit 3 with the claimed gap immediately above and to the left of 3 in figure 4. Paragraph 30 further discloses that the unit 3 can also be located either in 10 or in the side wall of 10 in lieu of the location buried in the gasket 18 as shown in figure 4. The embodiment of figure 3 discloses that the unit 3 can be located on the side wall of 10 immediately below the claimed gap. One of ordinary skill in the art in considering the disclosure of alternate locations on the side wall of body in figure 3 and at other locations in paragraph 30 would have realized that the unit 3 could be placed within the claimed gap on the side wall of 10 and would have considered this location to be obvious in view of the disclosure in paragraph 30 and the embodiment of figure 3.
3. Applicant's arguments filed 4/21/2009 and 11/4/2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Although paragraph 30 does not disclose placing the unit 3 on the body 10, the embodiment of figure 3 of the reference does. Therefore placing the unit 3 on the gasket as shown in figure 4 but on the side wall of 10 as shown in figure 3 would have been obvious since there is a gap shown in this location and in view of the disclosure in paragraph 30 of using alternate embodiments one of ordinary skill in the art would have been led to combine figures 3 and 4 as claimed. The rejection is not considered to be hindsight but rather common sense which would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. Applicant contends that the Garcia et al. 2003/0109068 is inoperable because the fastener 17 will destroy unit 3 during assembly. If this is true, then the claimed area immediately above the gasket as shown in figure 4 has a larger area providing more space for the unit 3 and moving it away from being directly underneath 17 thereby avoiding the squishing problem and making the claimed area even more of a common sense location to try.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
